Local news sent to you every fortnight

Visually impaired or blind?

FREE spoken local news

Sent to you every fortnight on CD or USB stick

The personal information collected will only be used to provide a requested service, kept for as long as necessary to provide that service and will not be disclosed to any other third party without your prior permission or unless we are required to do so by law.

Sussex Coast Talking News is a registered charity in England and Wales (1194876)

If you are visually impaired, blind or find reading print difficult, you can listen to Sussex Coast Talking News and magazine to keep in touch with your local area.

You will receive a FREE CD or USB stick every fortnight through the post, featuring local news stories and items of interest. Sussex Coast Talking News is also available online.

Our news covers areas in and around Arundel, Littlehampton, Worthing and Shoreham-by-Sea.

As well as local news, there is an audio magazine featuring a wide range of topics of general interest.

What some of our listeners say...

The magazine was brilliant with a range of stories which must have interested and amused the audience. I found myself laughing out loud!

Very good presentations. The reader came across as enthusiastic and really gave her stories some pizzazz!

My mother-in-law loves listening to the news every fortnight. Thank you for the fabulous service you provide.

It's free!

Complete and return the form overleaf, email/call us or visit our website
